Any skills or qualifications needed for entry to the class	No prior knowledge of the German language is needed. Interest in the German speaking world and things German is essential!
Materials required for first class	Paper & pen
Course description - Including aims &amp; objectives The course will aim to build your knowledge and confidence in your ability in the language and will include topic areas such as: introducing and talking about yourself, family members and friends; talking about places including your home town; finding your way around in a German speaking town/ country; talking about free time activities and hobbies; talking about food and ordering food and drink; booking and checking in at accommodation; holidays and transport; the world of work. We will practise the four main language skills at each class, concentrating first of all on: Listening, so that you become familiar with the sounds of German, many of them similar to English; Speaking, building from short, structured exchanges to free dialogues and conversations; Reading and Writing will also be introduced gradually. Getting to know more about German-speaking countries, how people live and what is important to them, will be part of the course from the start.

How Progress &amp; Success will be recorded: There will be regular checks at the beginning and end of lessons and in the shape of short tests to enable you to monitor your own progress. Speaking in role plays and presentations will be recorded (with your agreement!), another way of letting you see and hear how you are progressing.
Learning outcomes: Teaching and learning methods used: Teaching will be through presentation and practice of materials using the 4 main language skills. We will use the Talk German 1 course book and accompanying CDs, as well as a wide range of relevant websites, newspapers, magazines, easy readers and film. After each class you will be advised to revise what you have learned and to prepare, vocabulary or dialogue for example, for the next class. You may be asked to do some background research using German websites to inform the class, or to do short reading or writing exercises. Each student will complete an individual tracker form to monitor their learning goals throughout the course.

What else will you need to do	We ask all students to complete an enrolment form which asks for details required by the Education & Skills Funding Agency & the County Council and is a requirement of entry to the course. We ask for full payment prior to the course beginning. Please note refunds can only be made if a class is cancelled or closed.
What else do we ask of you	Please can you let us know if you have any attendance problems and if you are not able to attend the class (contact details below). We like to know if you have a problem.
How do we know if you are happy with your course	We will ask you to complete a course evaluation, giving us your feedback on the course, tutor & college. You are always welcome to feedback directly to us at any time during your course to help us improve our services & courses.

Some of our courses are subsidised by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) and part financed by the 2014-20 European Social Fund (ESF) programme. This funding is managed by Cambridgeshire County Council, Adult Learning and Skills. A short video covering the background of ESF, what it does, how it helps and who benefits is available on the European Union website: <http://ec.europa.eu/esf/home.jsp>
