Dear Year 7 Parent/Carer

Author Event

This half term we look forward to welcoming a visiting author to speak with Year 7 students about her experiences and latest book series. We intend to incorporate this talk into a mini literacy celebration for Year 7 in the main hall where students will also receive a free book as part of the BookBuzz initiative. This event will be held Period 2, on Thursday 2nd November.

Year 7 students will meet and hear from children’s author Inbali Iserles who has recently published the third in her series of Foxcraft books. Students will have the opportunity to purchase the Foxcraft books and have them signed by this exciting award-winning author. Please note Inbali is only able to sign copies of her own books. If you are keen for your child to take home any of the three Foxcraft books, please order via our Wisepay site here: <https://www.wisepay.co.uk/store/generic/template.asp?ACT=nav&mID=1339>

Following the author visit, all Year 7 students will learn more about the BookBuzz titles and then collect their chosen title. Reading for pleasure is actively encouraged at Ely College as it has been proven to have a positive effect on student achievement, but is also important in supporting students’ emotional welfare. We hope that this mini book celebration will continue as we invite students to write a book review during the coming weeks.

We hope students find this event enjoyable and that it promotes a discussion about what they enjoy reading at home. If you have any queries regarding this, please contact Mrs Shaw on 01353 667763 or email ashaw@elycollege.co.uk

Your faithfully
