Dear Parent/Carer

Non-School Uniform Day

A group of students composed this letter regarding an event we are participating in and would like to ask for your support.

Form group S-JCG from Scott House would like to raise money for 'Save the Children' charity. Keeping in mind that the holidays are fast approaching, the college and this form feel this will be a great idea. All 21 students will also be working on their PLEDGES at the same time, which is a reward scheme that we use at Ely College. Voluntary work covers all sections in PLEDGES, and we think that is a fantastic opportunity to get other members of the college involved in this event.

The students would like to promote a Christmas Jumper day. We understand that not every student will have a Christmas jumper so students can also wear festive apparel. Friday 15th December 2017 will be a non-school uniform day. In order to support us with this event, we would like every student who participates to contribute £1.00. The money will be collected by form tutors during morning registration.

For clarity there will be some rules applying to what is acceptable and unacceptable clothing, students are not permitted to wear:

- Ripped clothing e.g. ripped jeans
- Clothing with offensive mottos/logos/images
- Usual makeup restrictions will apply.

Of course, we would like everyone to take part. To keep in the Christmas spirit, it would be preferred if students were to wear Christmas attire like Christmas headbands or hats.

If you have any other questions regarding this event, please do not hesitate to contact the form tutor of S-JCG (Mrs Coggins): jcoggins@elycollege.co.uk or your child's form tutor and they will be able to answer your questions.

Yours faithfully
