

Remembering Sam

Samantha Clarke

21.03.91 – 31.10.09

The Sixth Form College is grieving the loss of one of their most loved students. Samantha Clarke died in the early hours of Saturday, October 31st, following a car accident the previous week.

Samantha had joined the Sixth Form from Queen's School in Wisbech in 2007, initially to study Biology, Business Studies, English Literature and Psychology. However, a change in her career plans resulted in a switch to Health and Social Care and Sociology the following year. She was making excellent progress on these courses and was looking forward to a future career in nursing.

Samantha was a calm, friendly student with a radiant smile that could light up a room. She had met her boyfriend Joe at the College and between them they had a wide circle of friends, across a range of courses. Sam's friends and family meant the world to her and her caring nature was there for all to see.

Students and staff are supporting each other and collected together memories and pictures of Samantha to give to the family. Their heartfelt commiserations and prayers go out to all of Samantha's family and friends.

The students are currently discussing a suitable memorial for Sam.
