Dear Parent/Carer

Christmas Carol Service at King's College, Cambridge - 4th December 2018

We are extremely fortunate to have been offered 10 tickets to attend a carol service at King's College, Cambridge and would like to invite your child to this very prestigious event.

We will travel by school minibus and leave college shortly after morning registration. We aim to be back in college just after 1pm in time for lunch and period 5. Students should wear full school uniform. College staff will accompany students at all times during this event.

These tickets have been offered free of charge. The Music Department will cover the cost of the transport and the college will meet the cost of the relevant insurance. There is therefore, no charge to you for this visit. If you would like your child to take part, please complete and return the reply slip below to the music department by Monday 19th November.

Yours faithfully

Mr T Vinall
Subject Leader – Music
