

26th November 2018

Dear Parent/Carer

Royal Visit – Tuesday 27th November 2018

We are extremely privileged to be asked to perform a musical interlude during HRH The Prince of Wales's visit to Ely tomorrow. We would like your child to be involved in this. In readiness for tomorrow, please share these details with your child:-

- Students to meet in LG1 at the start of period 2 for final rehearsal and checks.
- We will leave college at 11.15am and walk into town. Students will be accompanied by myself and another member of staff.
- Our musical performance will be finished by 1.45pm. We will walk back to college for 2.15pm.
- Please ensure your child wears the correct, full Ely College uniform, including black socks/tights and shoes are polished!
- Remember to wrap up warm – we suggest layers under your school uniform.
- Please bring your lunch with you – we shall eat at some point during the event.

This is an amazing opportunity and we hope that students enjoy every second of it. Please complete and return the reply slip below, by return. Thank you.

Finally, Christmas is always a busy time of year and your child's musical talents are required again on Thursday evening (29th November) as we have been asked to play at the College Christmas Market fresh from our 'Royal command' performance! This will take place between 6.30-8.30pm – please can students return to college by 6.20pm and congregate in the music room LG1. Once again, please ensure your child is wearing their college uniform, but feel free to wear festive hat and/or tinsel! The performance will be inside school.

I have been hugely impressed by the dedication and high standard of musicianship here in college. Thank you for your continued support.

Yours faithfully
