THE COURSE

- Train a minimum of 6 hours a week, sessions delivered by our UEFA qualified coaches working on a number of topics.
- Individual training plans for all students to help improve them both on and off the pitch.
- Represent Norwich City FC RDP in a range of competitions.
- Students can study a range of A level and BTEC level 3 subjects, offering flexibility for students to combine courses in a number of ways. We then offer a number of level 2 options including Maths and English GCSE resits.
- Rated a good school by Ofsted.
- Receive academic mentoring to help you achieve the best grade possible.
- Travel on foreign tours and residential training camps.
- Gain coaching opportunities within our Junior Coaches Club.
- Take part in our enrichment programme, including workshops and guest speakers on issues within society, employment opportunities and life skill, to ensure you develop as people and not just footballers.
- Progress into the professional and semi-professional game, employment, university, American Scholarships and a route onto our Norwich City RDP coaching apprenticeship
