1st December 2020

Dear Parent/Carer

Absence due to Jury Service

I am writing to advise you that I have been called for Jury Service from 7th December 2020 for two weeks. Year 11 students will be advised as follows:

Component 1 - Students will receive an email from me with feedback related to their final Portfolio draft submissions by Wednesday 9th December. If a student is not provided with feedback this is because they have not submitted their final draft, they should follow the general guidance and contact me with any questions that they may have regarding their work.

The deadline for the final submission of their Portfolio will be the first week of January 2021.

Component 2 - Friday lessons with Mr Agboke will focus on JB Priestly's 'An Inspector Calls'. Mr Agboke will be ensuring that they understand the expectations of the Pro-Forma document whilst workshopping the play. Casting choices will be made at the end of January and the rehearsals, in preparation for their practical examination, will also begin at this time.

Component 3 - The November Assessment paper focused on the Blood Brothers play-text and the opening of Danny Boyle's National Theatre production of Frankenstein. The results of the Assessments will be released during the second week of January.

The students will be watching the remainder of the production of Frankenstein in class with a Cover Supervisor – I will be providing the class and Cover Supervisor with the user name and password for the National Theatre 'on demand' plays. I will make students aware that I will be setting questions related to both Blood Brothers and Frankenstein on Teams for all students to complete.

I will, of course, will be able to respond to emails and the work submitted on Teams whilst absent from college but I cannot guarantee that they will be in "real-time". In my absence should there be any urgent questions, then please refer to Dr KJ Norton Berry: knorton-berry@elycollege.co.uk

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you a safe and restful Christmas.

Yours faithfully
