

10th June 2022

Dear Parent/Carer

As you are aware, today marks the last exam for English. At the start of the GCSE course, all students were issued copies of their key texts for GCSE English Literature through the library. The students no longer need these texts for revision; they have had the opportunity to hand their books back to their teacher or at a collection point in the hall before their exams.

If your child still has books at home, please ensure that these are returned to the school by Friday 17th June. These texts will need to be returned to Mrs Shaw in the library. If the text is not returned, you will be invoiced for the cost of the text as follows:

Oxford School Shakespeare: Macbeth - £6.15

An Inspector Calls (Heinemann Plays for 14-16+) Hardcover - £9.99

A Christmas Carol (Scholastic Classics) - £3.99

You can reimburse the cost of the lost text via: WisePay.

Yours faithfully

Mrs Heather Clark-Hope
