Dear Parent/Carer

Etheldreda House - Senior Tutor

I am writing to let you know that from the start of next half term Mr Newsome will be taking over temporary maternity cover as Senior Tutor for Etheldreda House.

Myself and Mr Newsome are already working closely as he familiarises himself with our House and all Etheldreda students.

Please share this news with your child so they can welcome Mr Newsome to our House next term.

If you, or your child, has any questions, then please do get in touch:

Yours faithfully

Jason Coe
Assistant Principal
Head of Etheldreda House
