Dear Parent / Carer,

Subject: Fantastic Opportunity for Girls in Year 7: Cambridge Computing Workshop

Carrie Anne Philbin, former Educator with the Raspberry Pi Foundation and PhD researcher at the University of Cambridge, is running a girls-only physical computing workshop as part of her research into children's experiences of computing.

This is a fantastic opportunity for girls in Years 4–7 (ages 8–11) with some experience of Scratch or micro:bits to take part in hands-on learning while contributing to important educational research.

Workshop details:

- When: Wednesday 27th May 2026
- Time: 10:00am–12:30pm
- Where: Department of Computer Science & Technology, University of Cambridge
