Dear Parent/Carer,

Returning GCSE Literature books

As we approach the end of the GCSE Literature course, I would like to thank you for your continued support.

We have been pleased to provide the set texts your child has needed through our school library but as the course concludes, we now ask that all books are returned so they can be used by future students.

The GCSE Literature exams are scheduled as follows:

- Paper 1: Romeo and Juliet and A Christmas Carol – Monday 11th May
- Paper 2: An Inspector Calls and Poetry – Tuesday 19th May

Students may return their books to the library at any convenient point after they have finished using them. All borrowed texts should be returned by Friday 22nd May. If a book has been lost, there are two options for replacement:

1. Purchase a replacement copy You may buy a copy via our library Amazon wish list, which ensures the correct edition is supplied: Amazon.co.uk
2. Provide a good-quality second-hand copy We are happy to accept second-hand replacements provided they are the correct edition and in good condition (no significant damage or excessive marking). These can be purchased from WOB.com or similar retailers.

Principal: Simon Warburton

Your support in returning or replacing these texts promptly helps us maintain our resources for future cohorts and is greatly appreciated.

Thank you again for your continued support.

Yours faithfully,
